ARTICLE I – Name

The name of this organization shall be NJIT Regional Alumni Club of Central New Jersey.

ARTICLE II- Objective

To foster and maintain relationships between alumni of NJIT and their alma mater.

ARTICLE III - Membership

1. Membership is available to NJIT alumni living and visiting in our regional area as determined by the Office of Alumni Relations (currently the NJ counties of Hunterdon, Mercer, Middlesex, Monmouth, Ocean, and Somerset).
2. Associate Membership is available to Friends of NJIT.

ARTICLE IV - Leadership

1. Regional Club Steering Committee: Membership in the Club’s Steering Committee is available to all Club members who wish to volunteer.
2. Regional Club Chair: The Steering Committee will select a chair to coordinate the Club’s activities.
3. Regional Club Vice-Chair: The Steering Committee will select a Vice-Chair to assist the Chair.
4. Regional Club Secretary: The Steering Committee will select a Secretary to keep notes of leadership meetings, capture decisions, and maintain Club records.
5. Alumni Council Representative: The Steering Committee will select a representative to participate on the NJIT Alumni Council. The representative’s responsibility will be to participate as a member of the Alumni Council meetings and share best practices with other Regional Alumni clubs of the Alumni Association of NJIT. The position’s term of office will be three years unless completing the remainder of a term created by resignation or other cause for vacancy.

ARTICLE V – Voting

This charter may be amended by a 50% + 1 majority of votes. The quorum required for conducting the vote will be equal to 50%+1 of those Alumni who have attended one or more of the Club’s program activities recorded by the Office of Alumni Relations over the last 24 months.

The membership will be informed of the pending amendment and vote with a minimum notice of 2 weeks.

The method of voting may include U.S. mail, email, or a show of hands at any event attended by a quorum as defined above.

ARTICLE VI- Not for profit statement
