

NJIT

STANDARD 5

ADMINISTRATION

Administrative Structures and Services at NJIT are

- Designed for mission fulfillment
- Mobilized through strategic planning process
- Facilitated through mission-centered goals
- Improved through surveys and evaluations

Facilitation of Productivity

- Builds consensus among shareholders for strategic goals
- Allocates financial support through educational initiatives, orientation sessions, performance assessment, civic engagement programs, and incubation activities

The NJIT Administrative Structure

- Office of the President
- Senior Vice President for Research and Development
- Provost and Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs
- Senior Vice President for Administration and Treasurer
- Vice President for University Advancement
- Vice President for Academic and Student Services
- Vice President for Human Resources
- General Counsel
- Director of University Audits

Strategies for the Future

- NJIT will prioritize and identify budgets to fill key vacancies in a timely manner in accordance with strategic planning initiatives and institutional priorities;
- NJIT will integrate institutional assessment strategies into the evolving model of shared governance through continuing periodic review of administrative functions, structures, policies, and services.